

The Thoresby Society

leeds metropolitan university

RESEARCHING LOCAL HISTORY

A Study Day to help you with your research with sessions on:

- The resources of the Thoresby Society Library with Prof Peter Meredith (The Society's Librarian)
- Researching your locality with Eveleigh Bradford (author of Headingley: this pleasant rural village)
- Researching popular entertainment with Prof Dave Russell (Leeds Metropolitan University)
- And a lunchtime walk around Little Woodhouse led by Freda Matthews (author of A walk round LittleWoodhouse)

Date: Saturday 22 May 2010 Time 9-30am – 4-30pm

Location: Clarendon, 23 Clarendon Road, Leeds 2

Cost: £7/£5 unwaged

PTO for further details

Name

Address

Contact Phone No.

I enclose £7/£5 unwaged, cheque made payable to The Thoresby Society.
Please return to The Thoresby Society, c/o 460 Street Lane, Leeds, LS17 6RB

Claremont can be reached by the free bus service and cars can be parked on Clarendon Road on Saturdays. There is no parking at Claremont. Cars can be parked on Clarendon Road above Claremont but check the signs as it varies from bay to bay.

Tea/coffee will be provided at the start of the day. Just below Claremont, in Woodhouse Square, Swarthmore provides hot and cold lunches and there are cafes in Great George Street. There is limited accommodation for those wishing to bring lunch and, weather permitting, there are benches in Woodhouse Square.

Places are limited to 30. If you wish to attend please complete the form above and send it, with your fee (cheques payable to The Thoresby Society), to:

NB Access to the Library and the afternoon sessions is by two flights of gentle stairs..